PROPOSED NEW JOINT-VENTURE IN SHANGHAI

The Board of Directors of YHI International Limited (“the Company”) is pleased to announce that our subsidiary, YHI Corporation (Singapore) Pte Ltd is currently in negotiations with The Yokohama Rubber Co Ltd to set up a joint-venture in Shanghai targetted in April 2006. The joint-venture is intended to carry out distribution of all Yokohama tyre products ranging from passenger cars, light truck radials and truck & bus radials in the PRC.

Our Directors believe that this development is synergistic and beneficial to our Group since currently, we are only distributing Yokohama passenger car tyres in the PRC.

We will announce the details of the joint-venture as soon as definitive documentation is entered into between the parties.
